BOMBAS / CASE ANALYSIS RUBRIC

AP Business with Personal Finance | Topic 1.1: What Is a Business?

Teacher-created assessment • Reading, practice, and application

STUDENT	TEACHER	DATE

SCORING | Award partial credit for accurate evidence; accept equivalent wording. Teacher reviews all scores.

ITEM	EVIDENCE TO LOOK FOR	MAX	EARNED	QUICK NOTE
R1	BUSINESS AND PRODUCTS Identifies Bombas and its premium socks; recognizes expanded apparel (underwear, T-shirts, slides).	10
R2	PEOPLE AND STAKEHOLDERS Names cofounders David Heath and Randy Goldberg and explains roles; identifies other relevant stakeholders.	15
R3	OPPORTUNITY OR CHALLENGE Describes an evidence-based opportunity or challenge (e.g., product gap, pricing, funding, design).	10
P1	TARGET PAYING CUSTOMER Describes buyers willing/able to pay $13-$20 and motivated by giving back; distinguishes customers from recipients.	15
P2	MARKET GAP Identifies demand for comfortable, high-quality everyday socks between cheap basics and sport-specific socks.	15
P3	RESEARCH AND PROBLEM-SOLUTION FIT Connects market research, technical research, customer testing/iteration to a product meeting buyer needs.	20
A1	PRODUCT IMPROVEMENT PROPOSAL Names an everyday product, proposes one specific improvement, and explains a relevant user benefit.	15

TOTAL SCORE _____ / 100 points STATUS | Teacher review required

TEACHER RESPONSE / STRENGTHS + EVIDENCE-BASED FEEDBACK

NEXT STEP / REVISION PROMPT

Scoring guide: full = accurate + complete; partial = some correct evidence; zero = absent / off-topic.

Not an official College Board rubric. Record a final grade only after human review.